

18 July 2008

Ethos Marketing is delighted to announce the winner of our 1st Quarterly Photographic Competition! A case of premium South African wine is winging its way to Alistair Walls from Imagine Africa for his winning shot of a giraffe "Mother protecting her newborn" from hyenas (below).

The image was voted upon anonymously by our team and was also hand-picked by Art Director, Dave Mackerell of Devised Studios as the "Best wildlife moment". He said it was "Brilliant as a moment in the wild captured".

Runners Up were:

"Curious George" by Melanie Dawson from Rainbow Tours. Dave voted this the "Photographers Choice" for composition and use of foreground.

"Leopard in tree" by Paul Campbell from Travel Butlers. Dave voted this as having the "Best Graphic Potential". The animal shape is perfect.

To take a look at the 48 other stunning entries, please visit:
<http://www.ethosmarketing.co.uk/competition-photos/>

Sincere thanks to everyone who entered.

Our next competition, which will be drawn at the end of September 2008 will be: "Images of Africa taken at an Ethos Marketing client property / location". The prize will be donated by Woodridge Country Estate.

For more information please visit www.ethosmarketing.co.uk and click on our competition page.