

Situated west of the Kruger National Park in South Africa's Limpopo Province, Little Garonga is the brand new Safari Camp that opened in the Makalali Game Reserve in December 2007.

With just 3 luxury suites linked by pathways, Little Garonga was designed with exclusive use in mind, but can also be booked in part.

The Hambleton Suite, which was the only exclusive Suite of the main Garonga Tented Safari camp, now forms the heart of Little Garonga – but now doubles up as a family suite with a separate Kiddies Room as well. The Hambleton Suite still has its very own swimming pool.

Pathways now lead the way from The Hambleton Suite to two fabulous new suites, namely The Buckingham and The Chiltern, meaning the camp sleeps 6 adults and two children in total.

The main lounge/public area for the camp consists of an outdoor lounge, fully air-conditioned indoor lounge with its own fireplace and 'help yourself' Bar, swimming pool area where meals are enjoyed around the fire, and a separate BBQ area. It also has its own boma and massage sala offering aromatherapy and reflexology treatments so the camp operates completely separate from the main tented Garonga Safari Camp. There is also a dedicated guide, vehicle, chef and host ensuring that personal touch for which Garonga is renowned.

Having two camps, however, gives Garonga the flexibility to be able to offer its guests the option of occasionally meeting up for dinners in the boma if they want to. Both camps also benefit from being able to use the gorgeous new Outdoor Bush Bath under the stars, located nearby, as well as the sleep-out deck in the bush under the stars.

Whilst offering viewing of big game such as lion, elephant and rhino on guided game drives, Garonga promises a more intimate wildlife encounter through wilderness walks, tracking and sleep-out excursions. Garonga's holistic philosophy is to offer a 'safari for the soul', an unhurried and intimate wildlife encounter – a time to relax, reflect and find inspiration in nature.
