

Indigo Bay voted in Tatler's "Top 100 Spas" world awards

On the 8th of September, at a glittering event in London, Rani Resorts' Indigo Bay Island Resort and Spa was nominated as one of the top 100 spas in the world, according to Tatler Magazine.

Indigo Bay's Spa, managed by Sanctuary Group - creators, marketers and managers of five-star spas throughout Africa - has a prime position on Bazaruto, a tropical island just off the coast of Mozambique. The spa is perched on an ancient sand dune overlooking the Indian Ocean. The spa offers five treatment rooms, an ice pool, wet room, hydrotherapy pool, Rasul Chamber, health bar and relaxation areas to uplift the most exhausted of souls. According to Tatler Magazine, it is "the hottest beach destination of the moment.. .the only serious spa hotel... that is European-efficient but with a natural chill-out African ideology."

"It is a great honour for the Sanctuary Spa at Indigo Bay to be part of the prestigious Tatler Top 100 list - an amazing achievement considering that our Spa has been open for less than a year. Sanctuary have really proved themselves and we are exceptionally proud to have them as part of our Group. They also oversee our spa at Pemba Beach Hotel in Northern Mozambique and will head up the Sanctuary Spa at Paradise Island", says Michele Abraham, Marketing Manager of Rani Resorts.

Adding to the success of the spa is the all-African product line Moya, which includes ingredients like wild Chamomile, Lanyana and Buchu into a heady range of body wraps, sun soothers and massages; treatments designed to impart African energy, goodness and vitality.

With such an extensive selection of spa treatments and packages to choose from, guests are treated to physical, mental and emotional wellbeing while enjoying the exquisite vistas of the island and 360 degree views of the Indian Ocean's indigo coloured waters. Spa pampering at its blissful best.
