

The stylish Steenberg Hotel is situated on the Cape's oldest farm, a mere 20-minute drive from the heart of Cape Town. This boutique resort hotel nestles in the tranquil Constantia Valley, against the slopes of the Steenberg Mountains, offering sweeping views over False Bay. Its buildings, dating back to 1682, were lovingly restored by owners Graham and Rhona Beck and have been declared a National Monument. Here the legendary elegance and traditions of the 17th century blend harmoniously with the most refined luxuries and conveniences of our modern age.

Steenberg holds the distinction of being the oldest farm in the picturesque Constantia Valley, which is generally considered to be South Africa's premier wine growing region. With its cool, sea-facing slopes and majestic granite ridges, this vineyard has developed a worldwide reputation for producing excellent, award winning Cape wines.

The Steenberg Hotel offers the ultimate in elegance, with tastefully furnished rooms and suites, some with exquisite antiques. All 24 suites have fabulous views over the vineyards or manicured gardens. Its three new Heritage Suites offer the ultimate in decadent luxury complete with butler service – celebrating Steenberg's National Monument status. The Khoi Khoi Heritage Suite is contemporary in style and has 2 bedrooms plus living room, kitchen and private terrace. The Dutch East Indian Suite has a Indian/spice route theme also with living room, kitchenette and private terrace, whilst the Cape Colonial Suite has the authentic Cape Dutch style and boasts private lounge and dining room, open plan kitchen, terrace and private pool.

Other hotel facilities include a stylish pool bar with loungers (where a bar menu is also available), a lavish and spacious spa offering wide range of treatments, an 18-hole golf course (rated as "The best in Cape Town" by many), operational winery and a hair salon. The area is also good for walking and bird watching.

Guests can enjoy a wide range of complimentary services including:

- Wine tasting at the Steenberg Winery Tasting Room
