

Konkamoya

follow the wind

ANNOUNCEMENT

Ethos is delighted to have been appointed UK representatives for Konkamoya from 1st February 2024. Owned and managed by Andrea Porro, Konkamoya comprises 4 luxury tents overlooking Lake Itzhi-Tezhi in the heart of the Kafue National Park in Zambia.

KAFUE NATIONAL PARK

Covering an expanse of 22,480 km², equivalent to the size of Wales or Israel, Kafue National Park was established in the early 1950s by Norman Carr, a renowned conservationist and pioneer of the walking safari. Carr's visionary approach, combining conservation with tourism, laid the foundation for photographic tourism, a principle that still thrives across the continent today.

ABOUT

Discover unparalleled luxury and wild elegance at Konkamoya Lodge – Your Gateway to exclusive wildlife encounters, Cultural immersion, and breath-taking landscapes in the heart of Zambia's Kafue National Park. Immerse yourself in the untamed beauty of Africa with our family-run lodge, Where every detail is crafted with passion. From expertly guided safaris to luxurious accommodations, culinary delights of authentic Italian cuisine, and eco-friendly solar-powered living, Konkamoya is your oasis 'Into the Wild.' Elevate your safari experience with cultural exchange opportunities and create timeless memories in an intimate setting. Konkamoya Lodge – Where Luxury Meets the Wild, and Every Moment is a Work of Art.

www.konkamoya.com

