Garonga offers a holistic bush experience. An intimate 'safari for the soul'.

A place where you can really breathe. Swap your watch for a kikoyo and bare feet. Go with the flow. Lie in a hammock and contemplate the clouds. Watch elephants in the riverbed while you cool off in the pool. Enjoy guided bush walks at dawn. Enjoy reiki and massages in the outdoor sala. Meditate and stretch on the yoga deck. Sip sundowners as the sky turns red. Embrace your "wild side" and sleep out under the stars in a tree house. Soak in the bush bath or new star bath if you fancy a final nudge over the edge of relaxation
