

THE SOVEREIGN HOUSE AT ROYAL MADIKWE

Family Safaris for the whole herd

The Sovereign House at Royal Madikwe is the ultimate “home from home” in the African bush – tucked away in South Africa’s popular Madikwe Game Reserve, which is not only malaria-free - but teeming with the “Big 5” game. There’s also the added-bonus of it being a “boutique reserve” which means no self-drive day visitors - ensuring exclusivity.

The Sovereign House caters for six guests so is ideal for larger or multi-generational families wanting an ultra-exclusive safari. There are 3 spacious bedrooms, all with beautifully appointed ensuite bathrooms, a large open living room and a cosy loft-style lounge upstairs where youngsters can chill in their own space. A selection of award-winning wines is poised to be enjoyed in a beautiful glass cellar adjacent to the kitchen.

The extensive wrap-around viewing deck has real “wow factor” - adorned with comfy sun loungers and a decadent daybed where the whole family can relax and enjoy the sights and sounds of the bush. It also has a refreshing plunge pool, open air rain shower and comfy lounge and dining areas shaded by Marula trees.

Perfect days end in perfect ways here ... sipping G&Ts around a blazing fire in the boma under the stars, knowing your kids are safely tucked up in bed. The Sovereign House has free high speed WIFI and Netflix for those who want it – although we are pretty sure the animal action will keep them riveted as herds of elephant and other game stroll past on their ancient path down to the waterhole.

Best of all? The Sovereign House comes with its own private vehicle and guide to ensure an ultra-flexible safari experience for grandparents, parents and children. Kids also get a free backpack filled with all sorts of goodies on arrival and there is a free activity program each day between 12h00 and 13h00 which teaches them about the bush.
