

THE BLUE TRAIN
A WINDOW TO THE SOUL OF AFRICA

THE BLUE TRAIN - ON TRACK TO AN UNFORGETTABLE SAFARI

There are many ways to experience South Africa – but if you really want to push the boat out and do it in style, you will be hard-pressed to beat combining a safari in the greater Kruger area with The Blue Train!

The Blue Train is an icon of South Africa - renowned for its sumptuous ensuite accommodation, award winning wines, freshly prepared cuisine and superlative service - all the while showcasing some of the country's most beautiful landscapes along its winding journey.

Usually travelling between Cape Town and Pretoria, The Blue Train also makes occasional special departures to the Greater Kruger area allowing a select few guests the opportunity to combine their one-way rail journey with a safari, either in the Kruger National Park itself – or at one of the luxury lodges in the Greater Kruger/Sabi Sands.

Guests enjoy around 19 hours of pampering on board as the train departs Pretoria at 3pm in the afternoon and arrives in Hoedspruit at 10am the next morning – or vice versa. This is also a great option for those who want to experience The Blue Train but on a smaller budget or tighter itinerary as the saving per suite is around R21,690 (around £1,200) compared to the longer Cape Town journey.
