WINTER WARMER

Don't forget that guests can save over £550 per suite if they book and pay in full before 31 December 2019 for travel in South Africa's Winter season (May – July 2020). Partners get a generous 50% discount - which equates to 25% off a double/twin suite. For more information click here.

WINES THAT SPARKLE

The Blue Train is delighted to have been awarded Diamond status at the 2019 Diner's Club Winelist Award. This prestigious accolade benchmarks establishments with leading eateries globally and verifies that The Blue Train carries accurate vintage wines, along with a select list of reserve-aged wines as well as foreign wines, serving a truly global wine offering that draws from various regions and producers across the globe.

Vincent Monyake, the Executive Manager of The Blue Train said of this achievement, "Being celebrated for our wine list is a nod to our well-considered excellent food and beverage offering on-board. Over 95% of our wines are South African, from some of the most interesting winemakers and vineyards. This accolade echoes our commitment to always elevating the food and beverage offering on-board to a new level of enjoyment. It is also an invitation to everyone to come on-board, journey with us on an unforgettable culinary experience and surrender to the luxury of slow."
