

Fancourt Hotel named SA's Best Golf Hotel 2017

Fancourt Hotel is honoured to have been named South Africa's Best Golf Hotel 2017 at the recent World Golf Awards. With three championship golf courses, including South Africa's number 1 course, The Links - Fancourt is undoubtedly an iconic, sought-after golf estate for both amateurs and pros alike.

The World Golf Awards serve to celebrate and reward excellence in golf tourism, world-class courses and golf destinations. Winners are chosen by popular vote by members of the public, and the golf hospitality community, as part of World Travel Awards.

“We are thrilled by this recognition, from the highly respected World Golf Awards,” said Peter Dros, Sales and Marketing Director at Fancourt. “We pride ourselves on our unsurpassed offerings for golfers, and look forward to sharing all that the Fancourt hotel and The Manor House have to offer with our current and future guests.”

Also commenting on the award was Ryan Reid, Director of Sports and Recreation at Fancourt; “Winning this World Golf Award is testament to the entire team at Fancourt. Every day, our goal is to provide high-quality service and course facilities, with exceptional experience. This award is validation of that hard work.”

Located near the charming South African town of George, Fancourt impressed World Golf Awards with its peaceful setting, extensive facilities and unique flare. Best known for its three award-winning golf courses (Montagu, Outeniqua and The Links), designed by golfing legend Gary Player and all ranked amongst Golf Digest's top 20 courses, the five-star Fancourt Hotel features a total of 115 rooms, four on-site dining options and its very own high-end spa. To maintain the hotel's five-star standards, recent refurbishments were conducted, of the golfing facilities, including new golf carts. From the manicured greens of its three golf courses to the natural surroundings of the Outeniqua Mountains, this majestic hotel offers the ultimate golfers getaway. <https://www.fancourt.co.za>
