

All Decked Out At Mashatu

Mashatu Lodge in Botswana is delighted to share the first glimpse of the new decks which have been added to the rooms, allowing guests to now enjoy their morning coffee or a bit of bird/wildlife spotting over a bottle of bubbly... Other changes happening at the camp soon include a new pool overlooking the waterhole to the far side of camp - and a kitchen upgrade behind the scenes. A new website is also going to be launched soon.
