

HAPPY 25TH BIRTHDAY FANCOURT

Fancourt is celebrating 25 years of family, friendships and memorable moments...

Although the Manor House dates back to the 1850's – Fancourt is celebrating the Silver Anniversary of its rebirth - when, in 1994, Dr Hasso and Sabine Plattner fell in love with this beautiful property on the Garden Route and made it their “home from home” – with big plans for the struggling hotel and estate!

And wow – the transformation of their dream is nothing short of spectacular!

The original Blanco House was built in the style of a Cotswold mansion for Henry Fancourt White - the British engineer who was involved in building the well-known Montagu Pass.

Today it is a decadent boutique hotel with just 18 suites and has been voted “South Africa’s Leading Country House Hotel” for 2 years running at the World Travel Awards 2018 & 2019 as well as been recognised at the Conde Nast Johansens’ Awards.

Today, Fancourt is South Africa’s premier leisure resort offering 115 immaculate rooms at the Fancourt Hotel which is set on 613 hectares of lush countryside with the majestic Outeniqua Mountains as a perfect backdrop.

Today, Fancourt’s pride and joy are its three Gary Player designed golf courses - all ranked in the Top 15, with “The Links” usually taking the top spot in South Africa. There is also a world-class Golf Academy.

Leisure activities on the resort include The Spa with an indoor heated Roman Bath as well as the Leisure Centre, which is home to the Kidz Club, teen lounge, gymnasium, cinema, indoor heated and outdoor swimming pool.

Outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy tennis, running/walking trails, bird watching and fishing.

A variety of restaurants are available on the resort for your enjoyment.

Glorious swimming beaches are easily accessible and mountain biking, horse riding, picnics and hikes can be arranged on request. Sightseeing excursions to the picturesque coastal towns of Knysna, Plettenberg Bay and Mossel Bay as well as the historic town of Oudtshoorn are also available.

Here’s to another 25 years of quality time, fun and comfort with Fancourt! #Fancourt25
